Dillon was a captivating presence at Pali High – he was a gifted writer and extraordinary friend whose compassion, humanity and joy extended far beyond the campus walls and into the heart and lives of so many. Dillon was devoted to issues of social justice while possessing the gift of helping others laugh and heal.

Dillon was to graduate with the class of 2008, but a tragic car accident ended his life. This scholarship was established to keep Dillon's brilliant spirit alive and to honor students who embody his hunger for learning and the power of one to make a difference. Recipients of this Scholarship become part of Dillon's legacy by their commitment to pay it forward, endeavoring to make the world a better place. As you join the 100+ Dillon Henry Scholars, you will enjoy the resources that the Dillon Henry Foundation can provide.
